

IABC in the UK: Global reach, local benefits

IABC is active and growing in the UK. With a full calendar of events, you can network, learn, and become part of a respected community of communications professionals.

In addition to the global benefits outlined in this brochure, you can join in all the UK chapter activities posted on www.iabc.com/uk (under Events).

These include:

Monthly events livened with speakers who are experts in communication-related topics. Most get-togethers are in the early evening – informal, interactive and with food/drink provided.

Meet & Mingle following each Board meeting, an event for new members to meet Board members. It helps put names to faces and bring membership in focus. IABC UK buys new members a drink at a central London venue and new members are welcomed personally and warmly.

Networking with communication professionals around the globe. With an online database, you can pick brains, follow job leads and reciprocate the help and support of fellow members. We do periodic ‘speed networking’ sessions and have many examples of success!

Professional development through a regular programme of Communications Master Classes and other events throughout Europe.

Professional accreditation with courses and mentoring to guide you through the credentials offered by IABC.

Skill building and involvement in your IABC UK Board or through work with the Membership, Professional Development or Communications committees.

Want to join?

Just fill out the form in this brochure or access our Web site, www.iabc.com/uk

Annual membership is approximately £175 (US$308)

For more information, contact IABC UK President Ezri Carlebach,
Head of Communication, Royal Society for the Encouragement of Arts, Manufacturers & Commerce (RSA) on 020 7451 6893

or

IABC UK Vice President of Membership Amy Moser,
Internal Communications Partner, BBC on 020 8008 2663.