

New York Chapter of the International Association of Business Communicators

Get Involved Today!

The best way to get the most out of your membership is to get involved! The NY/IABC has a wide range of committee activities and time commitments, so no matter what your situation there's no reason not to become active. Use this form to indicate your interest in one of the many worthy committees that keep our organization moving. Below is a description of the committees, as well as contact information.

ACE Awards Committee

The ACE Awards Committee focuses primarily on the strategic, tactical and creative development of the annual ACE awards program. The committee aims to:

- Recognize outstanding achievement in business and organizational communications
Gain recognition for the excellent work and professional achievements of NY/IABC and its members
Make the chapter's ACE Awards one that is recognized and coveted in the business community

Contact: Carol Wahler, NY/IABC Admin. (212-883-0800)

Communication and Public Relations Committee

The Communication and Public Relations Committee publicizes NY/IABC activities, awards and the special achievements of members. The committee aims to:

- Increase the visibility of NY/IABC and its principles in the Tri-State business community through local, trade, and national media
Increase recognition of the accomplishments of NY/IABC and its membership
Maintain the NY/IABC website as a viable communications vehicle for members

Contact: J.R. Bale (908-464-5300)

Accreditation Committee

Accreditation is the highest form of recognition in the communication profession. It involves a three-part process that measures communication knowledge and skill. Those who pass achieve the Accredited Business Communicator (ABC) designation. Committee goals include:

- Promote the benefits and value of accreditation
Stimulate discussion of the accreditation process
Increase the number of accredited members

Contact: Desta Raines (212-358-7697)

Special Programming Committee

The Special Programming Committee develops special events that:

- Increase participation of NY/IABC members
Further the NY/IABC identity

Contact: Mike Greece (212-752-8338 x668)

Membership Committee

The Membership Committee works to attract and retain communications professionals from the New York Metropolitan area. With a focus on the member experience, the committee aims to:

- Increase and broaden NY/IABC's membership
Communicate the benefits of membership to perspective, new, existing and lapsed members

Contact: Jim Berger (212-826-3895) or Jill Burdge (212-812-6246)

Programming Committee

The Programs and Activities Committee coordinates monthly programs designed to educate members about various communication issues and trends, as well as create networking opportunities. The committee strives to:

- Develop quality programs that meet member needs
Ensure NY/IABC provides valuable professional development opportunities
Increase the visibility and membership of NY/IABC
