About the IABC International Executive Board

The International Executive Board (IEB) is the global governing body and fiduciary of IABC. It is accountable to the members and has supervision, control and direction of the affairs of the association. It actively pursues the association's purpose and determines its policy within the limits of the law, Bylaws, and Articles of Incorporation. It upholds the IABC Code of Ethics for professional communicators and supervises disbursement of the association's funds. The IEB develops the strategic plan and direction for the association under the guidance of the association Bylaws approved by the IABC membership. In addition, the IEB serves as the Board of Trustees for the IABC Foundation.

Our Vision

Professional communications at the heart of every organization.

Our Purpose

Use the power of communication to deepen understanding, inspire action and transform our worlds.

Our Philosophy

We pledge to:

- Represent the global profession
- Foster a diverse community
- Focus on insights and results
- Honor our Code of Ethics

We will achieve this by being open, contemporary and professional.

Why Serve?

Volunteer leadership can be an exceptionally rewarding experience both professionally and personally. As IEB members, you donate your time, expertise and energy to shaping the future of IABC's impact on the global profession.

The opportunity to serve offers you:

- Opportunity to help set the course for the association.
- Visibility within a global community as a leader advancing change and driving impact.
- Expansion of your personal network and ability to grow your reputation.
- Experience as a fiduciary of a global association board to enhance your resume.
- Opportunity to give back to the profession.

Board Responsibilities

As the governing body of IABC, the board is responsible for:

- Setting the strategic intent, vision, and purpose of the association
- Selecting and evaluating the performance of the Executive Director
- Strategic planning and organizational oversight
- Ensuring strong fiduciary oversight and financial management
- Approving and monitoring the organization’s programs and services
- Managing organizational risk and upholding the public trust
- Assessing its own performance as the governance body of the organization

Duty of Care

Board directors must give the same care and concern to the International Executive Board as any prudent and ordinary person should. Board members should actively participate in meetings and on committees and actively work with other IEB members to advance the mission and goals of the association. Board directors should be able to read and understand financial reports and be willing to question expenditures and examine variances.

Duty of Loyalty

Board directors must place the interests of the organization ahead of their own interests at all times. Duty of loyalty means publicly disclosing any conflicts of interests and not using board service as a means for personal or commercial gain.

Duty of Obedience

Board directors must make sure that IABC is abiding by laws and regulations and does not engage in illegal or unauthorized activities.

Learn more about Duty of Care, Duty of Loyalty, and Duty of Obedience here.

Board members are expected to:

- Know the organization’s vision, policies, programs and needs.
- Faithfully read and understand the organization's financial statements.
- Serve as active advocates and ambassadors for the organization and fully engage in identifying and securing financial resources, such as the sponsorship and partnership potential needed to achieve outcomes.
- Prepare for, attend, and conscientiously participate in board meetings.
- Act as liaison to one or more standing board and/or programmatic committees at the chair’s direction.

Who Should Apply

Eligibility to serve on IABC International Executive Board

To be eligible for service on the IABC International Executive Board (IEB), the applicant must:

1. Be a current IABC member in good standing.
2. Have prior fiduciary board experience on a non-IABC board.
3. Have no conflict of interest (May not serve concurrently on a competitive industry board or have another IABC commitment unless service term will end in time for the new IEB board year in June 2022.)
4. Complete all application requirements by the January 8, 2023 deadline. (No late applications will be accepted.)

Candidates not meeting the above eligibility criteria will not move forward for consideration.

Who We Are Looking For

IABC is committed to diversity and inclusion. Our ultimate goal is to achieve a diverse mix of board members who together provide a range of perspectives, wisdom and abilities to steward the global association and accomplish its strategic purpose.

IABC looks for candidates who are strategic thinkers and demonstrate:

- Proven leadership ability.
- Belief in IABC's vision and purpose to serve the profession.
- Embodiment of IABC shared values.
- Global experience and understanding of trends impacting the industry.
- A range of business acumen essential to fiduciary duties and organizational oversight, including strategic planning, financial and business acumen, risk management, and more.

IABC's IEB is a competency-based board. The Nominating Committee screens candidates against the established competencies as outlined in the IABC Policy Manual, Appendix E \(page 46\). Per IABC Bylaws, consideration is also given to geographic, demographic and cultural diversity.

Vacancies on the 2022-2023

IEB include:

- Vice Chair with automatic succession to Chair (one-year term)
- Secretary/Treasurer (one-year term)
- Two Directors (three-year terms)

Commitments | Time and Out-of-Pocket Expenses

The board will meet monthly and additional meetings may be scheduled as needed. The video-conference meetings average 90 minutes. Typically board members meet in person for 1 or 2 days at the IABC World Conference in June. In addition, members of the board are assigned to serve as a board liaison to a committee or task force. These teams usually meet monthly for 60-minute video-conference calls and will require additional responsibility.

All board and committee calls require preparation time, follow-up, and various action items as assigned.

Executive Committee members (chair, vice chair, past chair, secretary/treasurer, and one appointed IEB director) have an additional Executive Summit to attend in-person (normally held in July) and convene via video calls in the months when the board does not meet.

Generally, the IEB has an in-person meetings each term – usually in advance of the World Conference. If funds are available, IABC provides some level of support for board travel, however, a board member should expect some out-of-pocket expenses that could average $2,000 USD per year.

Upon completion of the application, you will be asked to accept the following statement:

I realize that service in a leadership role involves a financial and time commitment. I realize that serving on the board will require out-of-pocket expenses and that attendance at Board meetings and other IABC business meetings is expected throughout the term of office.

Average time commitment per month:

- Chair: 40-50 hours
- Vice Chair: 40 hours
- Past Chair: 30 hours
- Secretary/Treasurer: 15-20 hours
- Director: 10-12 hours
