

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 20, 2015

GCCC Announces First Class of CMP Graduates

The Global Communication Certification Council (GCCC) today announced its first graduating group in the Certified Communication Management Professional certification.

Six graduates successfully met the requirements for the qualification, having been through an extensive application process and sitting a three-hour exam. The graduates were from across the U.S. and Canada and from a variety of industries and communication specialties. The six graduates are:

Priya Bates, ABC, MC, CMP
President
Inner Strength Communication Inc.
Located in Toronto, Canada

Terry Cerisoles, CMP
Vice President, Internal Communications
The American Cancer Society
Located in Atlanta, Georgia

Sandra L. Reid, MA, CMP
Vice President,
Corporate Communications
and Strategic Planning
The Davey Tree Expert Company
Located in Kent, Ohio

Fraser Tingle, CMP
Communications Specialist
Argentica Multimedia
Located in Calgary, Canada

Brad Whitworth, ABC, IABC Fellow, CMP
Senior Communication and Marketing Manager
Cisco
Located in San Francisco, California

Rachel Wong, CMP
Internal Communications
& Media Advisor
Port Metro Vancouver
Located in Vancouver, Canada

The CMP qualification is designed for communication professionals at five to seven years of experience in their career and is the first of four levels of certification planned to be introduced by the GCCC.

New exam dates for candidates interested in sitting for their CMP will be announced shortly. Applications are open year-round. More information about CMP is available on the IABC website: <https://www.iabc.com/professional-development/certification/communication-management-professional-certification/>

ABC = Accredited Business Communicator
MC = Master Communicator

About GCCC:

The Global Communication Certification Council (GCCC), an initiative of the International Association of Business Communicators (IABC), represents the communication industry worldwide and serves as an autonomous governing body for the Global Communication Certification Program. The Council's purpose is to create and maintain an internationally recognized standard of communication excellence, based on a global understanding of key principles and job competencies worldwide.

<https://www.iabc.com/professional-development/certification/global-communication-certification-council-2/>

Contact:

Melissa Dark ABC
Director Global Communication, IABC
+1 415-544-4752